

NANCY MARX, Ph.D.
520 S. El Camino Real, Ste. 204
San Mateo, CA 94402
(650) 562-1904

EDUCATION:

1991- 1997 Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology, San Francisco School of Psychology

1979- 1982 M.A. in Clinical Psychology, Antioch West University

1972- 1976 B.F.A. in Dance, University of California at Los Angeles

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2001- Present

Private Practice, San Mateo

Individual treatment with adults and adolescents. Practice focused on treating the eating disordered patient utilizing a multi-disciplinary approach to recovery, in addition to working with depressive disorders, anxiety disorders and personality disorders.

2002- 2004

Kaiser Permanente, Redwood City

Staff Psychologist in Adult Psychology. Develop and manage Eating Disorder program, including assessments for Gastric Bypass Surgery. Conduct intakes and provide individual and group treatment on the depression team in addition to treatment for other, diverse populations. Continue to serve on the Regional Best Practices Committee for Eating Disorders at Kaiser. Provide in-services and supervision for staff.

1999- 2002

Kaiser Permanente, Santa Clara

Staff Psychologist in the Intensive Outpatient Treatment Program.

Individual and group treatment designed to stabilize individuals in crisis in order to avoid hospitalization or to provide partial hospitalization upon discharge from the hospital. Treatment includes facilitating DBT, CBT and Relapse Prevention groups. Populations include the chronically mentally ill, dual diagnosed, and eating disordered patients.

Staff Psychologist in the Chemical Dependency Recovery Program.

Individual and group treatment for the eating disordered patient who is dual diagnosed. Group treatment includes a blend of CBT, DBT, Relapse

Prevention and Nutrition. Conduct classes on restoring health and relationship between food and addiction. Consultant to the eating disorder program in Adult Psychiatry. Chemical Dependency Representative for the Best Practices Committee for Eating Disorders at Kaiser.

- 1997- 1999 Kaiser Permanente, Santa Clara
Postdoctoral Intern. Individual and group treatment in the Chemical Dependency Recovery Program. Assisted in development of dual diagnosis track. Developed Eating Disorder Program for the Chemically Dependent population. Served on the Regional Best Practices Committee for Eating Disorders at Kaiser.
- 1995- 1998 Center For Special Problems, San Francisco
Predoctoral Intern. Individual and group treatment for severely mentally ill individuals. Population includes criminal offenders and victims, gender dysphoric individuals, and HIV positive clients. Conduct intake interviews.
- 1996 San Francisco School of Psychology, San Francisco.
Teacher's Assistant position in Neuropsychological Assessment course. Instructed doctoral students on how to administer, score and interpret neuropsychological instruments.
- 1994- 1995 Health Center #1, San Francisco.
Predoctoral Intern. Administer and score neuropsychological evaluations in addition to psychological testing to HIV positive Patients. Participant on multi-diagnoses treatment team.
- 1983- 1994 Weight Management Program- California Pacific Medical Center, San Francisco.
Individual and group treatment for eating disordered population, utilizing cognitive behavioral approach. Conduct Psycho-educational groups. Assist in numerous research projects. Supervise and train behavioral staff. Lecturer on eating disorders at California Pacific Medical Center.
- 1979- 1983 Fremont Adult School, Fremont.
Individual and group treatment for geriatric population. Conducted movement therapy sessions in four convalescent hospitals.
- 1982- 1983 Residential Treatment Facilities- Odyssey House, Baker House, and Mandala House, San Francisco.
Individual treatment for adults. Provided crisis intervention. Conducted intake interviews.

- 1981- 1982 Woman Inc., San Francisco.
Practicum Level Intern. Individual and group treatment for battered women and victims of sexual assault, primarily low income populations. Provided crisis intervention on site and over the phone. Consultant to Family Violence Project and Child Abuse Council.
- 1981- 1982 Recreational Center For The Handicapped, San Francisco.
Practicum Level Intern. Individual and group treatment for children, adolescents and adults with developmental and physical disabilities. Conducted movement therapy sessions.
- 1980- 1981 St. Mary's Hospital, McAuley Neuropsychiatric Institute, San Francisco.
Practicum Level Intern. Individual and group treatment on children's inpatient unit. Conducted movement therapy groups on children's unit.
- 1980- 1981 Kathy Michael's School, San Francisco.
Practicum Level Intern. Conducted movement therapy sessions for disturbed children.
- 1979- 1981 Langley Porter Institute, U.C. Medical Center, San Francisco.
Practicum Level Intern. Individual and group treatment on inpatient crisis unit. Conducted movement therapy sessions on crisis unit. Assisted in vocational training as part of rehabilitation program. Developed movement and relaxation groups for ITRS Unit.
- 1979- 1981 Westwood Manor, San Francisco.
Individual treatment for geriatric, chronically disturbed inpatient population. Conducted movement therapy sessions. Participant on multi-diagnosis team.
- 1978- 1979 Health Clinic, New York.
Developed and facilitated movement therapy program for eating disordered population. Conducted group sessions in yoga and relaxation techniques.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Doctoral dissertation titled “An Analysis of Alexithymia as a Predictor of Poor Outcome The Behavioral and Pharmacological Treatment of Obesity in Women”. 1996.

Doctoral pilot project titled “The Recovered Therapist’s Perspective on the Curative Factors in Her Personal Treatment of Anorexia and Bulimia”. 1993.

Research Assistant in outcome studies at the Weight Management Program- California Pacific Medical Center. 1983.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

National Association of Anorexia Nervosa & Associated Disorders

Academy For Eating Disorders

National Eating Disorders Association

Board member of San Mateo County Psychological Association